Budget

Income: For a travel/study proposal this will generally cover a lengthier period of time and so you can include (if applicable) any salary you will continue to receive, or any awards you have been granted to support this endeavour. For a discrete project application, you might be expecting to receive things like expected ticket sales or in kind support.

Expenditure: This will depend on your application purpose; for a travel/study application this will include such things as the costs of tuition fees, materials, lessons, accommodation, food etc. Delete non applicable items (examples given will not be relevant for all applicants). For a project based award application you might have such costs as hire of equipment, payment of staff or collaborators, costs of materials or construction. These are examples only.

It is understood that your expenses may not be confirmed and that you are giving your best estimate of these costs. The more detail you can provide, the better. Please add more rows as needed.
